Athens, Greece is the capital with everything: ancient monuments, rugged side streets with Instagrammable street art and nearby sea views. This means that the city is equally interesting in choosing watering holes. From local neighborhood bars serving craft beers to central tourist areas offering wine tastings to beach bars, here are 15 that give you a rounded look at the best bars in this eclectic city. 01/15 Hidden oasis in the city centre, six d.o.g.s. combines an urban cool courtyard in the garden, where both locals and visitors gather to enjoy a variety of drinks from the ubiquitous Greek coffee drinking hobby to the expensive but valuable cocktails created for you by the ecologist. You often host both Greek and foreign musicians or DJs, be sure to check out their site due to low events such as charity shows. 02/15 Bring together two world-class Greek bartenders and what do you get? The clumsy ones — as they ironically called themselves — are an award-winning bar bathed in natural light all day, attracting both tourists and locals. As the day dwindles into the night, a more formal vibe takes hold, mixing great cocktails - Chili Con Melon, made with premium tequila, mezzal, melon, sage and smoked chipotle, takes you to heaven. Rounded off with their legendary reservation, only a private room with vinyl records, billiards table and fireplace - don't miss this unique experience. 03/ 15 Address Pl. Filomousou Eterias 3, Athina 105 58, Greece Phone +30 21 0324 1193 In the heart of the Plaka region under the Acropolis lies a piece of France. Worth mentioning here, L'Audrion is a wine bar and restaurant that invites its clientele - locals to gather after work and visitors - to redesign French wines unique to Greece. Trust that the resident sommelier will listen to recommend a glass or bottle of wine that is perfect for your taste. Compliment your drink on a plate of meat or cheese and enjoy live music on Wednesday evenings at 7.30pm .m. Visit the site for more information about wine tasting events in their basement. 04 / 15 T.A.F. / Art Foundation address Normanou 5, Athina 105 55, Greece Phone +30 21 0323 8757 Hidden on a side street in the Monastirak flea market area downtown, the Art Foundation — T.A.F. — is hidden behind a small wooden door, blinks and you miss it. However, as you wander through this seemingly harmless crumbling building, a large courtyard waits to see what daytime students and co-workers drink coffee and at night cocktails, wine and beer flow. Its name stems from the fact that there are now various art exhibitions in the old rooms around the courtyard. They were, in fact, remnants of interrogation rows because it was a prison in the 19th century. Continue of the 15 below. 05 / 15 Address Athinaidos 12, Athina 105 60, Greece Phone +30 21 0323 4095 Do you love art and theatre and are looking for a more alternative place Faust is a bar owned by a Greek actor and an alternative theatre concert that is open as late as 4am.m some days and is located just off Ermou's central shopping street, making for a variety of shows such as Opera Chaotique and live jazz. Divided into two floors, the décor gives the place a vintage feel. Cocktails, beer and wines abound, but there really is a vibe here that draws crowds. 06/15 Near Athens' trendy refurbished gas district – Gazi – Bios successfully mixes its all-day bar with a gig venue, theatre and cultural space. Many locals can be seen working sidling their frapies. By evening, locals will have exchanged coffee for local beer or wine, either in the downstairs gig space or on the rooftop terrace with stunning views of the Acropolis. Check out the site to see what's on your visit. You can enjoy a set from a local musician, an art exhibition or a theatrical performance in their basement. 07/15 It is not necessary to stay at the upsy expensive Hilton Athens to enjoy its facilities. One of the most popular features is the rooftop bar. Galaxy Bar is located on the 12th. Enjoy the sunset while sipping one of their inspiration cocktails, including Dixie – a pineman's rum-based drink with coconut and passion fruit among its ingredients – as well as a selection of wines and spirits. Compliment your drinks on a sushi plate. 08/ 15 Address Falirou 53, Athina 117 42, Greece Phone +30 21 5550 5565 Literally translated father into English, O Babas is located in Koukaki - a local neighborhood with a growing shop for AirBNB customers. O Babas is a hangout for both locals and visitors. It's one for beer lovers who stock up on a wide variety of craft beers, which is a bit unusual in a wine-loving country like Greece. Whether you're inside or on the sidewalk, relax and enjoy Noctura – a beer from the capital's first independent microbrewery founded by three young friends in 2016 – or sip satyr brews on a sout. Continue to 9 of the 15 below. 09/15 Located in the very tourist area of the Plaka region in the shadow of the Acropolis, Brettos is despite its location, where there are actually more Tourists than Greeks. This is the place to come and enjoy one (or more) of the more than 36 different liqueur flavors given from old family recipes since 1909. Also choose homemade brandy, ouzo and rakogelon - a boiled raki drink with cinnamon and honey. The colourful bottles create a warm atmosphere that also attracts many tourists to stop for a photo op. 10/15 360 degree views of the Acropolis and surrounding area, including street murals, head to the A for Athens Hotel's rooftop cocktail bar opposite Monastirak Metro Station. Open 4a.m. — mixologists create specialty drinks such as Schylia and Charybdis: Havana Club Añejo 7-year-old rum, aged tsipouro, oymelo and lime ginger beer. It also serves as an all-day café, so don't feel pressured to buy one of their admittedly expensive but popular alcoholic beverages. In addition to popular drinks, the location and atmosphere draw crowds, seeing the Acropolis illuminated at night in all its glory. 11/15 Address Kolokotroni 59B, Athina 105 62, Greece Phone +30 21 1215 9534 Kolokotroni Street in the heart of the capital is lined with bars and sidewalk cafes. Noel is on this street and it is advisable to ignore the rest and head straight here. Look past the original unpretentious exterior, as there is a feast inside for the eyes; two floors of luxurious decorations and private rooms. Think chandeliers and cozy nods and crannies. Drinks include a selection of gins and brandies, as well as their own cocktails such as Ella Fitzgerald, Limoncello, soda, grande vento prosecco and lemon sorbet. To Noel is open all day from 10.:m:00 to 2:00. M. and on weekends until 4.m, come and relax after a day of sightseeing and hum on a holiday stop that I'm sure you'll recognize. 12/15 This courtyard garden is a hideout in the city centre – open until 2.m am in summer daily except Sunday and Monday (when it closes at 1.m am). It's also a piece of history. Located next to the Athens City Museum, the Black Duck house and garden was annexed to the museum 180 years ago and was the first public garden in Othonas (also called Oton), Greece's first king, and his wife, Amalia, the woman in charge of the capital's first public garden. The bar displays home items that you can order from a selection of beer, wines, cocktails and coffees. This is a place for those who are fans of drinking surrounded by history. Continue to 13 of the 15 below. 13/15 As the name suggests, the speciality of this courtyard bar is the choice of more than 250 wine labels, some of which are vintage and rare collections. Greek and international wines are available. There is also a selection of beers from Greek microbreweries such as Septem, which produces a different type of beer for every day of the week. Open daily until 3.m am, its location in syntagma's capital square means it's the perfect choice bar to sit in peace with friends when you're changing security guards or walking through the National Gardens. 14/15 Aika Obrazovskaya / Getty Images Address Lake Vouliagmeni, Vouliagmeni 166 71, Greece Only 20 km and half an hour by car from the city center located on the Athens Riviera. It is itself a unique destination on the coast, and Lake Vouliagmeni is one such place. A natural geological phenomenon, come here to enjoy swimming in a brackish spa with fresh and salty water with Garra Rufa fish, and in a sunset wonder lake and cave lit up in its glory, there is also a great bar area where you can sip a glass of wine, champagne or cocktail. In July and August, you can enjoy live music that is suitable for a beautiful setting. 15/15 On the Athens Riviera, well worth a visit is the Avra Bar at the glythed Four Seasons Astrir Palace Resort. The hotel has a celebrated past, popular in the '50s and '60s with movie stars and politicians. It has since been refurbished and has several restaurants and bars. Avra is one such all-day lounge bar in the heart of the resort on 5 May. With coffees and light snacks throughout the day, you can well watch the sunset over the Aegea Sea and order one of their name cocktails, including Russian vodka-based Passion Mule, vodka, passion fruit, ginger beer and Demerara sugar. Open daily at 1.m.a.m.
